HEAD START THE HOLIDAYS

At IKEA we LOVE the winter holidays, and every small, personal moment that builds up to the big celebration. This got us thinking: why wait to start the season? After all, isn't it the longing and anticipation for the holiday that's the best part?

That's why there's no better time but now to start the celebrations! With this year's new winter collection including two distinctive styles of sparkling decorations, bright lighting, cozy textiles, and everything needed to fill the kitchen with tasty holiday treats, we're giving the winter holidays a stress-free head start.

So, before Santa climbs down the chimney, before the last minute holiday shopping, before the long days of cooking and the big family feast is served - we want to take a moment (or maybe two) to enjoy the tiny steps that are accomplished along the way: the intimate mini-meetings, the small personal rituals, and brief magical moments of anticipation that soon, soon it's here. We simply can't wait!

THE BEST MOMENTS COME IN SMALL PACKAGES

It is known that with the abundance of holiday preparations and excitement, a bit of stress is common too. Most of us worry about decorating our homes and throwing flawless holiday dinner parties. Maybe a few of us are even losing sleep over finding the perfect gifts for our friends and loved ones.

But what if we stop looking for perfection in the big gestures? And instead focus on capturing the small moments that bring true joy and holiday spirit to our hearts. Because, usually the greatest holiday gifts in the world are not the ones that rest under the tree, waiting to be unwrapped, but the personal little moments that turn into long-lasting memories and precious traditions.

STYLES OF THE SEASON

WINTER HOLIDAY

With this year's winter collection, in two styles, there is something for everyone's special holiday moments. Ranging from decoration to kitchen (and everything in between), it doesn't matter whether it's about going nuts with every holiday knick-knack and trinket, or simply lighting an extra candle or two. IKEA welcomes all winter holiday enthusiasts to head start the holiday coziness with us!

NORDIC LIGHT

Shedding light on the season, this collection presents the unexpected, the whimsical atmosphere, and simple, yet decorative, winter holiday ambience. Maybe the usual lush green tree is now a sparkling naked branch. Combining shiny and matte surfaces, blonde woods and fresh pastels, this collection has all the ingredients to create new and personal winter holiday traditions.

NOSTALGIC TRADITIONS

On the other end of the seasonal spectrum we present a collection with a rich, warm and dark style - an indulgence in the classic romance and nostalgia of the special winter holiday feeling. We go back in time and embrace the meeting point of old and new. Inspired by enchanting castles and bold dark tones, we find beauty in the details of antique metals, lacework and engraving.

PH129955

MOMENTS OF TOGETHERNESS

Sometimes it's during the smaller meetings we feel the most included. Perhaps it's just a matter of gathering your closest friends or loved ones for a quaint get-together. The beauty of it is that each gathering is unique, and all the more fun when celebrated long before the big day is here.

This year's ensemble of table sets and glasses add a small touch of twinkle to any special gathering. No need to worry about practicalities and aesthetics not jiving well together. Our handmade champagne glasses are dishwasher-safe, and the perfect match to our patterned tall glasses, extra durable glass bowl, and highly absorbent three-ply napkins made from renewable material. So, let's make a toast to a pre-holiday party - cheers!

MOMENTS OF LOVE

There is something special about those winter holiday mornings. No need to wake up early and rush off to daily obligations. No expectations of getting tasks and duties done. No one placing orders and demands.

So let's allow ourselves to make the most out of the holiday morning moments that set the cozy tone to all those days off. And, with a small touch of love, we aim to make them even better.

MOMENTS OF ANTICIPATION

Oh the wait. The waiting for the big day to arrive. It's almost a bittersweet sensation. However, usually it's true about what they say: it's the journey itself that brings us happiness, and not necessarily the end result. So, while we wait, let's remind ourselves about that journey. Let's allow ourselves to enjoy it! Because, once Santa has left and all the gifts are unwrapped we start longing for next year's winter holiday.

In anticipation for Santa's arrival, place a few holiday doormats together to mark his route (his own red carpet). And, not to worry if the entry is a not so graceful one. This doormat has an anti-slip backing to keep it firmly in place.

There's something magical about hanging up that last ornament, isn't there? It's a brief, but nonetheless enchanting, moment that's been longed for since the tree had first been spotted.

This year's traditionally styled collection offers tree decorations and ornaments with romantic details and a handcrafted feel. Enjoy the ease of hanging them up since each and every one comes with an already attached string.

MOMENTS OF JOY

Expectations in and around the kitchen during the winter holiday season can sometimes feel a bit overwhelming. But, since we're all about a stress-free winter holiday this year, we'd like to encourage the imperfections of holiday baking and cooking. Yes, why not embrace the little flawed moments that usually make us laugh and look like messy fools having fun? The truth is that those holiday treats are just as sweet no matter what they look like!

So, don't hesitate. Put that chef's hat on, find the dusty book of recipes, and indulge in all the sprinkles and glaze there is to indulge in. This year's holiday collection of baking molds, cups, tins and aprons will make for perfectly imperfect holiday baking.

MOMENTS OF CALM

For some, setting the table holiday-style can be an art. For others, it might feel like a tricky task. This year's nostalgic traditions collection of table settings help make table preparations for any gathering a simple and, perhaps even pleasurable, activity.

No need to worry about making a mess during holiday dinners. Made from 100% cotton, the table runners and tablecloths are there to create a decorative and warm holiday atmosphere. Adding to a calm dining mood, the festive red placemats have protective surfaces that also reduce noise made from plates and cutlery.

And, in the case of a spill or two, these patterned napkins are highly absorbent due to its three-ply paper. So, let's light a few candles and enjoy the tiny moments before the guests arrive.
